August 21, 2017

Good afternoon Sidewinder families!

As you know Mr. Taylor, our school counselor, has been filling in for our vacant middle school social studies position since the beginning of the year. We appreciate his flexibility in pitching in during this time. Due to our current budget situation, we will not be filling that position in the near term.

In order to allow Mr. Taylor to provide counseling services, I will pick up Mr. Taylor's 7th grade social studies class until further notice. By reducing his class load by one class and in addition to changing the schedule just a bit, this will provide Mr. Taylor to provide counseling services for half of the day.

This change will take place tomorrow, August 22, 2017.
